HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY.

Faculty of Heidelberg Theological Seminary, Tiffin, O.

Rev. A. S. Zerbe, Ph. D., D. D.

Rev. Henry Christman, D. D.

HEIDELBERG Theological Seminary was founded by The Ohio Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, at Navarre, in the Autumn of 1850. As early as 1836 and 1839 a charter conferring power to establish a theological institution within the bounds of the Synod and providing for the election of a Board of Trustees, was granted by the Ohio Legislature. The first Board of Trustees was elected at the Synod of Lancaster, Ohio, in June, 1839, and by-laws for the government of the Board were adopted. The Theological Institution was temporarily located, first in Canton and subsequently in Columbus, Ohio, but the Synod of Navarre took action whereby the Seminary acquired a permanent habitation in Tiffin.

The object of the Seminary as defined in the Constitution is "to educate men of approved piety and talents for the Gospel ministry; to cultivate in them the gifts which Christ, the great Head of the Church, confers upon those whom He calls to the sacred office; to provide for the Reformed Church an adequate supply and succession of able and faithful ministers of the Word; and to preserve the unity of the Church, by educating her ministers in an enlightened attachment, not only to the same doctrine, but also to the same system of government and cultus."

The Professors are elected by the Ohio Synod and at the time of inauguration obligate themselves to make the divine authority of the Holy Scriptures and the truth of the doctrine contained in the Heidelberg Catechism the basis of their instruction.

OUR NORTHWESTERN MISSIONS.

IN the last ten years marked progress has been made in our German missions in Canada. A Jubilee Memorial was published last year setting forth the encouraging details of this work. We give above several glimpses of the conditions under which the faithful toilers there carry on their labors; and also the faces of three missionaries who have taken an active part in the important work. From left to right these are Rev. Geo. Hoffman, Rev. A. Heinemann, and the venerable Rev. Wm. Hansen, pioneer missionary. There are other devoted laborers in this field who have also done much, in the way of toil and sacrifice, to spread the Kingdom of our Lord in this territory, and who deserve special mention.

This great Northwest promises to be, in the not distant future, one of the richest sections of our continent. Its agricultural and mineral resources are practically unlimited. Its population is rapidly increasing.

RECENT RECRUITS FOR OUR FOREIGN MISSION FORCES.

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer H. Zaugg, Sendai, Japan. Rev. and Mrs. J. Frank Bucher, Mr. Horace R. Lequear, Miss Rose A. Spangler, Yochow, China. Miss Anne C. Kanne, Rev. Edwin C. Beck, Chenchowfu.

There is cause for gratitude in view of the splendid additions made to our force of workers in Japan and China. Those who know the new missionaries speak only in words of praise of their ability and consecration to the work of the Lord. The Board always seeks out the best men and women for this great service in behalf of the Church in heathen lands. The best are not too good for the needs in Japan and China. These nations demand great things along the lines of education, art and commerce, and it will be simple folly to send out those who are not well qualified. Only one of the six missionaries will go to Japan. Rev. Elmer H. Zaugg will teach in North Japan College. He is a recent graduate of Heidelberg University, and a young man of great promise. He found a proper helpmeet in Miss Nina Cantieny of Lima, Ohio. Rev. J. Frank Bucher is a self made man. He fought his way through College and Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., and enjoys the confidence of his professors and class mates. Miss Miller, his wife, was an earnest worker in our church at Shamokin, Pa. Mr. Horace R. Lequear is a recent graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, and Rev. Edwin A. Beck, son of Rev. John H. Beck, after spending three years in Syria, completed his theological course in the McCormick Seminary, Chicago. Miss Rose A. Spangler hails from Kansas, and Miss Anne C. Kanne from Nebraska. Both ladies are thoroughly imbued with the missionary spirit.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Frank Bucher and Mr. Horace R. Lequear were on the Manchuria which was stranded. Happily there were no casualties among the passengers.

OUR STRATEGIC LOCATION.

As Japan is "The Key of the Orient;" and as Japanese influence is rapidly becoming dominant, it is difficult to overestimate the far-seeing wisdom, resulting beyond all question from providential guidance, manifest by our Foreign Board in selecting Japan as its special base of operations, and in following Japan into China.

OUR FOREIGN MISSION OUTLOOK.

THE Board of Foreign Missions will need, at least, $75,000, to provide for the estimates of the Japan and China Missions and the home expenses during 1907.

There are not a few congregations who could support an evangelist or Bible Woman in addition to the apportionment. Some are doing so to their great joy.

Our Japan Mission is planning to erect a small cottage in connection with the Sendai Orphanage under the care of Miss Phelps of the Methodist Mission, to be known as the Reformed Church Cottage. This is an excellent institution and has every prospect of being a great blessing to the community, and the cottage will be a very fitting monument to the liberality of the Reformed Church.

The Evangelistic work of our Japan Mission is making steady progress. Our principal difficulty is a shortage in the number of native preachers. There is a strong agitation in the Japanese church for independence of missionary control, and this has unsettled the work at some preaching places, but in spite of all the obstacles in the way, there has been an encouraging story to tell. Candidates for the ministry are increasing, and those who are studying in America will likely resume direct evangelistic work when they return to Japan. There has been a net gain in the membership of 275, and in Sunday School scholars 112. Contributions for church buildings have helped to increase native offerings by $305, while the ordinary offerings advanced $249. By far the greatest progress was made in the Tokyo field.

Since the occupancy of the new North Japan College buildings a new spirit has taken hold of all the teachers and students. The belief has taken root that the school has a great work to do in North Japan. As in all important undertakings there are many difficulties to overcome, many defects to remedy, many achievements to make, which yet seem far beyond us, yet there is no reasonable doubt of its becoming the leading factor in the spiritual regeneration of North Japan. Dr. David B. Schneder, president, is home on furlough, for this year, and he reports the work in a most hopeful condition.

Christian physicians of this age in China have vastly greater powers for proving the love of Christ, than had their predecessors. To the ignorant and superstitious the achievements of surgery seem little short of miraculous. They soon learn that a religion of which such work is the fruits cannot be altogether bad; that a religion that the foreign physician believes and that prompts him to work among them, must have some good in it. This very fact makes it easier for the preaching of the Gospel.

China is notorious for the entire neglect of proper sanitation. There is even a lively rivalry among its most important cities as to which deserves the prize for surpassing filthiness. What a field for the Christian physician and nurse!

The purpose of Medical Missions is to win men to Jesus Christ by the use of methods precisely comparable to those used by Christ when on earth, as the Great Succorer of bodies as well as Divine Saviour of souls. Both our hospitals at Yochow and Chenchowfu are now ready for patients. We may await blessed results from Drs. Beam and Kelly.

There is a constant need of money for the Dispensary work. Contributions should be sent to the Board.

The hospital at Chenchowfu, as well as the Girls' School building has been paid for with the $25,000 Indemnity Fund. We still need about $3,000 to provide for the furnishing of the rooms. Is there not some one who will pay for the furnishing of the operating room?

The layman is a latent force in the evangelization of the world.

Unfortunately the work of missions has been crippled for the lack of a Men's Missionary Society. Experience on every hand proves that the work has been left too much with the women and children. When the men will take the same interest in missions as they now take in money, we will see our offerings quadrupled, and an army of recruits ready for service. The cure for the layman's inactivity in the Kingdom is a new emphasis of the magna charta of the Church, viz:

1. That all men must be given the gospel.
2. That every Christian is to help give the gospel to every creature.
3. That every church is a missionary society.

THE GENERAL SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

THE word of St. Paul "None of us liveth to himself" applies to the individual Sunday School. Every School is both a debtor and a helper.

By the general Sunday School work, we mean work for all the schools of the Church, and by all the schools.

The Church at large, as a spiritual mother, is called upon to assist in the moral and religious instruction of the young, and in the Bible study for all in the Sunday School. This work is carried forward under the direction of the Sunday School Board of the General Synod.

For the sake of convenience, the work of the Board is divided into The Business and Editorial Department, and The Educational and Missionary Department. A dozen Sunday School lesson helps and papers are published, which provide suitable material for the help of the teachers, parents, and scholars.

Our Reformed Church Sunday School periodicals are a potent factor in religious instruction and in Christian culture.

4,952,038 copies of Sunday School papers and lesson helps were issued last year, in addition to miscellaneous publications, such as festival services, hymnals, Sunday School requisites, aggregating 672,000.

For the year ending March 31st, 1906, the sales of the Business Department amounted to $65,821.19. The Board has published three song books — the Sunday School Hymnal, of which 115,000 copies have been printed; the Primary Sunday School Hymnal, which has just reached its third edition, numbering 25,000 approximately. No other Church has better Sunday School singing books than the Reformed Church.

The Heidelberg Teacher Training Course, No. 1 and 2 are used in many schools.

CHURCH BUILDING FUNDS.

THE plan was introduced in 1886. In 1891 there were twenty "funds." Now there are about two hundred.

They have been of the greatest service in our Home Mission Work. New congregations have been enabled to secure a church building at once. They are loaned on a first mortgage. The same "fund" has been used to erect several mission churches successively. The smallest fund is $500. There are several $1000. funds, several of $2000., and one $5000. fund. The total amount represented by these funds is more than one hundred thousand dollars. It is probable that no plan adopted in our church extension work has yielded more satisfactory results. The good work will go on as long as the Reformed Church shall endure.

The plan adopted by the Home Mission Board for loaning these church-building funds to Mission Churches is an excellent one. For the first few years no interest is charged. Then the rate is two per cent. Later this is increased to four per cent.; and finally to the regular rate. In this way new congregations are given substantial assistance in their first years of struggle.

REFORMED CHURCH, SYCAMORE, O.
REV. A. C. SHUMAN, PASTOR.

EDUCATIONAL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

THIS Department of the S. S. Board aims to improve existing Reformed Sunday Schools, and to start new schools. It is supported by an annual free-will offering from each School on Children's Day, by the income from invested funds, and by appropriation from the profits of the Business Department of the Board.

Schools are started by Sunday School Missionaries; and by pastors, and others, through grants of literature given by the Board. Last year fifty-six needy and destitute schools, including a number of new schools were aided in this way. A patriotic missionary work is done by the publication of the Hungarian Monthly "Evangel" and weekly Picture Cards for the little ones.

It is gratifying to note that the membership of our Reformed Sunday Schools has been increasing more rapidly the last twelve years, since the Board's work was inaugurated, than ever before.

235,213 are enrolled in Reformed Sunday Schools, but there are thousands of children, as well as adults, that need to be gathered into our schools. Every earnest church member should help in the Sunday School work.

The Sunday School Board has its main office at Philadelphia, where we hope soon to erect a Reformed Church Building, in which will be located also the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions. The Central Publishing House, Cleveland, Ohio is the efficient Western depository of the Sunday School Board.

Literature-Loyalty.

Reformed Church Sunday Schools should use Reformed Church Sunday School lesson helps. They are equal to the best. They are moderate in price. They reflect the spirit of our own Church. Be loyal to your own institutions and boards.

ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' HOME, BUTLER, PA.

ST. PAUL'S Orphans' Home, situated on one of the hills overlooking the town of Butler, Pa., was established in November 1867. The property, at the time of purchase, contained thirty acres of land, a large main, and some out buildings. Considerable change has since been made in the buildings, some new ones erected, and ten additional acres of ground purchased.

The property was purchased from Elder Christian Seibert, a member of the Reformed Church. The price was $8,000, of which Mr. Seibert himself contributed $1,000. Revs. Charles A. Limberg and George B. Russell, acting under the direction of St. Paul's Classis, were mainly active in effecting the purchase. Other classes speedily fell in with the movement, and in the fall of 1871 the Pittsburgh Synod assumed control, and the Home has since been under its fostering care.

It has cared for upwards of a 1000 children in the thirty-nine years of its history. These have come from all sections of the Church, but mainly from the Pittsburgh, Ohio, and western part of Potomac Synods.

At one time many soldiers' orphans, placed and paid for by the state, were on its roll. It has capacity for about one hundred children, though at times many more than that have been crowded within its walls. Of late years the number has varied from seventy to ninety. The aim has always been to give the children good educational, Christian and domestic training. The schools are in three departments, are open nine months of the year, and are taught by a well qualified force of teachers.

The entire property has lately been sold for $75,000 with a view to relocating the Home, and providing it with such buildings and other equipments, as will enable it to do work on a larger scale, and under more improved methods.

"Servant of God, well done!"

REV. L. B. C. LAHR, D. D.

DR. LAHR was born at Tiffin, O., on February 11th, 1856, and died at Delaware, O., April 11th, 1906. He was a graduate of Heidelberg University, and Theological Seminary, finishing his course in the latter in 1881. His pastorates were spent in the Helena, Kinnickinnick, Hillsboro, Canal Winchester, and Delaware charges in Ohio. He was an active member of the Heidelberg Seminary Board of Trustees, and of the Board of Visitors, of the Board of Home Missions of General Synod, and of the Ohio Christian Endeavor Executive Committee. He was a devoted servant of the Master and his Church, universally beloved; one whose influence for good was very wide and deep, and whose loss was sorely felt throughout the Reformed Church.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME, WOMELSDORF, PA.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME.

THIS institution is located near Womelsdorf, Pa. at the foot of South Mountain, where it possesses about ninety-five acres of land of which about fifty-five is under cultivation. The remaining is wooded mountain land affording ample room for play ground for all the children. There are also large gardens, orchards and vineyards. The buildings are modern in design, roomy and well-lighted with wide halls and stairways. The Main Building contains dormitories, laboratories, reading room, parlor, chapel, and the private rooms of the superintendent and his family and a number of employes. This is the home of the boys and there are seventy-three living in it at this time.

Santee Hall is the home of the girls of whom there are fifty-one. Frick Cottage, for the smallest children, was erected by Mrs. H. M. Housekeeper of Philadelphia in memory of her parents.

There are eleven little children in the Cottage. The total number of children is 135. A new cottage is in course of erection. This is meant for little boys and girls from five to seven years of age and it will increase the total capacity of the Home to 160.

The Christmas gifts last year amounted to over $10,000 and money and supplies came not only from the Eastern Church but even from Ohio, Michigan, and Illinois.

The Home celebrated its forty-third anniversary on August 23rd and for more than forty years the venerable Dr. Bausman of Reading, Pa., has been president of the Board of Managers.

The present superintendent is the Rev. Wilson F. More, who with a full corps of faithful and efficient employes, makes it his aim to conduct the affairs of the institution so as to merit the confidence of the Church, and to give the orphan children as far as possible the kindly care and the tender nurture of a Christian home.

The Christmas season — the time of the great childhood festival — has been designated as the time for bestowing our gifts upon the orphans.

THE FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME.

THE Fort Wayne, Ind. Orphans' Home has nearly rounded out its first quarter of a century of useful service. As indicating its strong hold upon the affections of the Church, five thousand people gathered to assist in celebrating its 23rd anniversary last August.

The buildings are substantial and handsome brick structures and their surroundings are of such a nature as to provide the greatest happiness for the parentless children.

At present there are more than one hundred children at the institution. The Rev. Ruf, superintendent, and Mrs. Ruf, who is the matron, are particularly adapted to the work they have in charge. In Switzerland, before coming to America, Mr. Ruf was engaged in similar work and was known as a man of wide experience and high competency.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ruf are lovers of children, and the results which they have accomplished with the children under their charge are little short of remarkable. The children are well cared for and trained.

REV. J. O. VITZ, PASTOR.

REFORMED CHURCH HISTORY IN BRIEF.

THE Day of Pentecost is usually accepted as the birthdate of the Christian Church. Just when the first congregation was formally organized we do not know. Gradually the Church spread throughout Asia and Europe, as Paul and the other apostles engaged in mission work.

In the course of a few hundred years, instead of being opposed by the Roman empire, Christianity became the favored religion. In 325 the Emperor Constantine called together the first great general Church council in the city of Nice.

During the 4th, 5th and 6th centuries the Church spread rapidly, and gained great power.

This prosperity of the Church was accompanied by gradual corruption, and this increased during the following centuries. Good men tried at various times to uplift and to reform the Church, but without very widespread results.

In 1516, Ulric Zwingli, a Catholic priest in Switzerland, began preaching against the abuses of the Church. One year later Luther, a Catholic monk, did the same in Germany.

Through the influence of Zwingli's preaching, and that of those who sympathized with him and who followed him, the Reformation (Reformed) movement was started in Switzerland, and spread from there to Germany, and other countries of Europe. Side by side with the Lutheran Church the Reformed (or Reformation) Church gained strength. It entered Holland and France, and came to our own land early in the 18th century. Our first church was built of logs, in eastern Pennsylvania, in 1726.

Today we number about 400,000 members in the United States, with several millions of members in other parts of the world.

The Heidelberg Catechism, which was issued in Heidelberg in 1563, contains our statement of belief.

The Reformed (so called, as we have seen, because it sprang from a reformation of the corrupted Church in the 16th century) Church is like the Presbyterian in its form of government; and similar to most of the evangelical denominations in its general beliefs.

It has in the United States:

Synods, 8.

Ministers, 1151.

Members, nearly 300,000.

Annual contributions nearly $2,000,000.

Sunday Schools, 1650.

Sunday School members nearly 240,000.

The motto that sets forth its attitude toward other Christians is the one which is worthy of the Church; "In essentials unity; in non-essentials liberty; in all things charity."

Special Dates.

OUR GROWTH IN MEMBERSHIP.

THE quarter of a century just ending, which has witnessed our aggressive entrance upon the work of Missions, has also seen the reflex influence of that work as evidenced by internal growth. A new Synod has been added to the list in that time, giving us eight in all. The Classes have been increased by five, and now number fifty-seven. From less than eight hundred ministers we have increased to more than eleven hundred and fifty, while about three hundred new congregations have been added to the list. There has been a net gain of almost one hundred thousand members in this time, and we now have a total of nearly 300,000. Our Sunday Schools have been increased by about two hundred and seventy-five, and their membership by about 100,000, closely approximating the increase in our church membership. The particularly encouraging fact with regard to these figures is that the ratio of increase has shown a marked advance in the last decade.

AN OUTSIDE OPINION.

Writing of some of our missionaries in Japan, Mr. William T. Ellis, whom the Philadelphia Press sent on a mission tour to the Orient, says, "There is Miss Weidner, the best type of alert, well-poised, aggressive and refined American young womanhood. The spiritual Gerhard, a gentleman and a scholar. Dr. Seiple, the quiet man of books, whose knowledge and character command confidence and respect; the energetic, capable administrator and Gospel pioneer Faust, whose tongue twists easily about the difficult Japanese language, and who knows the native ways so thoroughly,—of these, and others I could write at length in admiration. I am glad that a man may count them as my friends. As for your church, "the big church" of Sendai, it must be given rank with your leading churches in the homeland."

ST. PAUL'S REFORMED CHURCH, BELLEVUE, O.
REV. D. WEBSTER LOUCKS, PASTOR.

REFORMED CHURCH GROWTH IN GIVING

IN a period covered by about a quarter of a century the benevolent giving of the Reformed Church has increased over four-fold. In the same time the giving for congregational purposes has been more than doubled. Stated in round numbers the benevolent giving for the first three years of this quarter of a century was a little more than $327,000, while that of the last three years was nearly one and a half millions of dollars. $2,200,000 represents the giving for congregational purposes for the first three years of this same period, while the giving of the last three years was over four and a half millions.

It is interesting to note the large totals for this period. The average for the twenty-five years is over a million dollars for congregational purposes, or about twenty-six and a half millions of dollars in all.

The total benevolent giving for the same time was about six million dollars, jumping from about $100,000 a year to over $330,000. These figures furnish food for thought; reason for great encouragement, and stimulate to even larger things.

OUR PROSPECTS ABROAD.

Remembering what the Lord has done for us in the past, and basing our expectations on the present encouraging condition with respect to the attitude of mind and heart towards the religion of Christ on the part of many people, we face the future hopefully and confidently. Never before in our experience, not in the history of our mission work, were the calls more frequent and more urgent; never were the needs greater and the inducements stronger for advanced, progressive and enthusiastic mission work.

OUR TWENTY-FIVE LARGEST CHARGES.

As a matter of general interest it is worth while to note the numerical strength, and the distribution of our charges reporting a membership of eight hundred and over. Where there is more than one congregation the number is indicated in parenthesis. The figures for 1906, which were not all available at the time this table was prepared, would show an increase in most cases; and would also admit several additional charges to the list.

Miss Carrie J. Dreibelbies, for six years a missionary of the Methodist Church in Kiukiang, China, and principal of the Woman's Bible Training School, was unanimously elected a missionary to have charge of the evangelistic work among the women at Yochow. Rev. George A. Dreibelbies of Shanesville, O., is a brother of our new missionary. She was formerly a member of our Church, and a catechumen of the venerable Dr. N. Z. Snyder.

Mary E. Dreibelbies is the adopted child of Miss Dreibelbies. She was born in Kui Kiang, China, November 6th, 1902. Her Chinese name is Tai-Mei Uy. She was found one night wrapped in rags, and lying outside the "compound". In company with Miss Dreibelbies she visited our various synods last fall, and sang her way into the hearts of all present.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY.

We are occasionally asked to suggest some simple form which may be used in receiving members into the societies. We commend the form given below.

If our Endeavor work is to win the best results there are certain conditions which must be kept steadfastly in mind. We give a brief summary of these.

Keep the lines between the different classes of members distinct, and definitely fixed. Do not admit professing Christians to associate, or non-church members to active membership. Persons advanced in years or unable to attend the meetings regularly may be listed as affiliated or honorary members. Church officers are honorary members ex-officio.

Let active or associate members be nomin- ated a week previous to the evening on which their names are voted on, and those elected are formally received. Have a special form for the reception of each class.

FORM OF ADMISSION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

(After asking all candidates for membership to come forward, the society rising, the president shall say:)

DEAR FRIENDS:—You have been duly elected as active [or associate] members of this society, and you are now about to take upon you the solemn promises upon which your admission to our ranks is conditioned. Let us look to our Heavenly Father for His blessing. (Prayer.) (Then he shall say,) Trusting that you have been led to take this step, after earnest and prayerful consideration, I now ask you who are to become active members, Do you reaffirm the vows made by you when you first confessed our Lord and Master by uniting with His church? If so, answer "I do." Join with us in repeating our pledge. (Repeat pledge, all the society uniting. Have pledge on the wall.) Do you accept this pledge as the sincere utterance of your own heart? If so, answer, "I do."

(Speaking to the associate member, he shall say, DEAR FRIENDS:—You have been elected to associate membership. Do you promise faithfully to attend our meetings, and to comply with the conditions of such membership? If so, answer, "I do". (Prayer by pastor. The president shall then extend the hand of fellowship to each with a few words of greeting, and announce the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds.")

Many societies do not sufficiently emphasize associate membership. Our efforts to secure associate members are too few, and our hold upon them when secured is too feeble. We do not lay enough stress upon associate membership as a first step towards the Christian life. We do not remember them frequently or earnestly enough in our prayers. Too often they drift in and drift out, and are not captured for Christ. We know of some societies which do not even have a form of admission for them. They are merely elected, and then permitted to find out, as best they can, their duties. There should be some simple form of admission, such as the one given above, to associate membership. They do not take the active members' pledge, but they do promise faithful attendance and propriety of conduct in and out of the meetings, and they should do this before the whole society, as this will help impress upon them the serious nature of the obligations they assume. They should be especially upon the minds and in the prayers of the Lookout Committee. It would be well to divide the associate members among the members of this committee, that they feel some personal responsibility in the case, and exercise a sort of watch-care over them. Let their names be called in a separate list at the Consecration Meeting and let them answer "present."

Let us magnify the associate membership, seeking ever, on the one hand, to swell the list by bringing in recruits from the world; and, on the other, to diminish it, by leading them on, through the acceptance of Christ, into active membership.

Here are some helpful hints as to the discharge of our duties toward our associates, from the president of a prosperous society.

1. Give them plenty to do.
2. Work with them, rather than for them.
3. Set them a good example; human nature is imitative.
4. Set them to thinking about religious things.
5. Lead, rather than push. Work steadily, rather than violently.

SYSTEMATIC BIBLE READING

Anything that will promote systematic, devotional Bible reading, will tone up the spiritual life of the individual and congregation. Often individual Christians will be stimulated to greater fidelity in Bible study when a whole group is known to be following the plan. For the benefit of pastors and superintendents who desire to form such groups we append the following schedule for reading the Bible through in a year. The chapter assignments are for the weeks beginning with the date indicated. For the week beginning December 30th, read to Gen. 19th in the Old Testament to the Matt. 6th chapter in the New Testament.

NECROLOGY.

Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States who have died during the year ending October 1st, 1906.

REV. ELIAS BAUMAN was struck by a train at Linton, Oregon May 26th, 1906, and instantly killed. His age was 72 years, 3 months and 17 days. He is survived by his second wife, five children and nine grandchildren. His burial took place on May 28th at Portland, Oregon, Rev. Fred. C. Schnuelle officiating. SCHILL'S NEW IDEA FURNACE

Manufactured by

The Schill Bros. Co.,

CRESTLINE, OHIO.

If interested in Sanitary Heating, you should not fail to investigate.

Read what Rev. H. O. Jorris, Pastor of Reformed Church, has to say:

CRESTLINE, OHIO, March 26, 1903.

GENTLEMEN: The two large size furnaces which were placed in our new church last fall, have been put to a severe test last winter, but, am glad to say, were not found wanting. They have done the work exceedingly well. How could it be otherwise? An article made by men of superior qualifications and character, such as the Schill Bros. are, must necessarily be of superior quality.

Yours sincerely,

H. O. JORRIS.
